from another man's standpoint, and of the lack of knowledge prevailing in the opposed sections of the country regarding each other. It appears to us that if conciliation is resily desired, and we believe it is, that all who desire it should remember that in the heat of passionate strice both parties committed acts that the other can scarcely forgive. As an illustration: There are thougands in the North who remember with a bitterness past all expression their experience as prisoners of war; on the other hand, there are thousands in the South whom wounded pride, loss of property, wounds, and defeat have equally embittered. Time is the great healer; but it is very poor surgery that probes the wound as rapidly as it closes. It therefore appears to us as very poor policy and exceedingly bad taste to invite Mr. Davis, who is believed by thousands at the North to have been largely responsible for the war, to address a meeting of any kind in the interests of con- surpass ciliation. We do not believe that Wendell Phillips would be received as an apostle of peace in the Gulf States. Too many ideas are associated with the names of the promiment actors in the war, both North and South, that are repulsive to a large number of their former enemies, to make them of any value whatever as promoters of good will at the present time. Least of all will the people of the two sections trust the stranded politicians of the North or South. Thousands of northern soldiers would have listened to General Lee who would hoot Mr. Davis in the streets.

If conciliation is desired it is time the two sections stopped applying epithets of abuse indiscriminately to the North or South. We have a somewhat extended acquaintance with the United States from Maine to California. We have met good men and bid men; noble, generous men; and "picayunish" men; good-natured boors and accomplished receipts, more or loss of all bids.

CANTGN INSIDE LINE."

NEW FAST FREIGHT ROUTE BETWEEN RICHMOND AND PHILADELPHIA.

TRI-WEEKLY.

On and after OCTOBER 1ST the splendid from steamers of this line will leave Richmond TUES-DAYS. THURSDAYS, and SATURDAYS from Powbatan Steamboat Line's pier, at corner of Twenty-second and Fock streets, making close connection each trip at Canton, Md. (East Baltimore) with the Philadelphia, Wilmington, and Baltimore with the Philadelphia, Wilmington, and Baltimore insurance free of cost. No dockage charged at Richmond. Rates as low as any other line. This is the quickest line between Philadelphia and Richmond.

Freights ordered by this line should be marked yunish" men; good-natured boors and accomplished rascals; more or less of all kinds wherever we have been. It is an unwarrauted assumption that because a man first drew breath on one side or the other of the Potomac or Ohio he is necessarily of any particular stamp. We have seen the best New England stock transplanted to Georgia, and producing a contemptible, swaggering braggart, who, returning to the home of his fathers, disgusted every relative be had and misrepresented the South.

Another obstacle to concillation is the ignorance of the two sections regarding the politics of the other. We believe that a politics of the other. We believe that a majority of the people North and South are agreed upon the main points involved to-day in national issues. To a person outside of politics the two parties, in the main, represent the intelligent portion, trying to act for itself with some degree of independence, arrayed against the ignorant portion manipulated by leaders. In the South the Republican party, composed largely of negroes, is manipulated by a few designing leaders, while the intelligent portion of the community know the negro too well to place any confidence in such a party or organization. In the North the Democratic party em-here and there brilliant exceptions. The northern Republican at present has got to either vote with his party, not vote at all; or, what often amounts to the same thing. or, what often amounts to the same thing, vote with the Democrats, by which he would decry his political faith. So in the South there are improved numbers in a claim.

The fact is the country is getthat an independent voter is becoming a rare specimen North or South. We believe that there is a rapidly increasing desire on the part of many men at the North, of both parties, that one of the conventions for the nom- NO TRANSFER BETWEEN RICHMOND AND ination of a presidential candidate may have sufficient sense to name a states-man who will neither represent the radical Republicans nor the John Morrisey Democrats-a man whose name is suggestive neither of battles nor war measures; a man whom all self-respecting supporters of good government, both North and South, can support, not because he is called Republican or Democrat, but because he is worthy of the votes of an intelligent and free people.

Along such a path lies the road to conciliation; and not in calling each other traitors or cowards, like two boys who have had their fight standing on opposite sides of the gutter indulging in the pastime of throwing mud and making faces at each other. Yours in haste,

A NORTHERN REPUBLICAN.

A lately-appointed postmaster of a western Massachusetts town came down to Boston the other day to "qualify" and have his bond for $600 approved. The bond was all right, and the regular question was put to the postmaster: "How much are you worth, sir ?" "Wal," he replied, "I don't tell haow much I'm worth. Bradstreet sets me at $10,000. I guess you'd better put it down at that figger." "How much do the assessors set you at?" "Wal, the assessors don't set me at quite so high a figgear; but [in a confidential whisper] 'tween you 'n' me, I'm one of the assessors."-Boston Travel-

"Why, I always " what thought he was fond of lager-rhythms, and that's zwei," replied the young hopeful.— New York Commercial. "What is your verdict, gentlemen of the jury?" asked a Montgomery justice as the jury entered. "Well, boss," said the intelligent foreman, squirting a stream of tobaccojuice over the clerk's head, "the defendant looked sorter guilty, and so we've found him guilty."-Montgomery State Journal.
